The presence of Australian Football in Denmark starts in May 24th 1989. On this fateful day Mick Sitch places an ad in a newspaper asking if there were any interested parties who would like to meet him for an informal kick of the footy in Fælledparken, a public park in Copenhagen. Two people turn up, Bo Jørgensen and Steve McKay.

Read on below for details on the individual years. The 1980's and 1990's
